

hosted by

University of Montana Center for Natural Resources & Environmental Policy and the Department of Geography sponsors

Canadian Water Research Society
University of Montana Departments

- Environmental Studies
- Native American Studies
- Geography

University of Montana Center for Natural Resources & Environmental Policy

Flathead Lake Biological Station

Upper Columbia United Tribes

Idaho Sierra Club

Montana Sierra Club

Washington Sierra Club

The Center for Environmental Law & Policy (CELP)

Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes

Montana Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Montana Christian Association

Backcountry Hunters and Anglers

Universities Consortium on Columbia River Governance

WaterWatch of Oregon

Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fish Commission

Columbia Institute for Water Policy

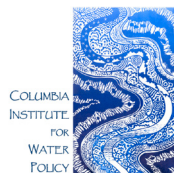

Rachael & John Osborn

CLEAN, FLOWING WATERS FOR WASHINGTON
The Center for Environmental Law & Policy

Montana Synod
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

For those wishing to sponsor the 2019 One River/Ethics Matter Conference, checks may be made out to the UM Department of Geography and sent to:

UM Department of Geography
Attn: David Shively
Stone Hall 208, 32 Campus Drive, Missoula, MT 59812

Checks should indicate they are for the One River/Ethics Matter Conference Sponsorship.

One River | Ethics Matter: WESTERN MONTANA

5th annual international ethics conference on the past and future of the Columbia River

April 11, 2018 | Missoula
University Center North Ballroom
University of Montana

agenda

7:30 Registration (UM University Center – North Ballroom)

8:00 Welcome, Prayer, Overview

- University welcome, Seth Bodnar, President, University of Montana
- Indigenous welcome, Tribal Chairman Tony Incashola, Salish Pend O’reille Culture Committee, Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes
- Overview of the Conference Series, Thomas W. Soeldner and John Osborn MD

8:45 Rivers of Our Moment

- Moderator: Dan Spencer PhD, UM Environmental Studies
- Bishop Jessica Crist, Montana Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
- Tony Incashola, Salish-Pend d’Oreille Culture Committee, Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes

10:00 Break

10:15 Rivers Through Our Memory

- Moderator: Pat Smith, Northwest Power and Conservation Council
- Eileen Delehanty Pearkes, A River Captured: The Columbia River Treaty and Catastrophic Change
- Alfred Joseph, Chief, ?akisq’nuk First Nation of the Ktunaxa Nation
- Ron Abraham, Tribal Councilman, Tribal Elder, Kootenai Tribe of Idaho

12:15 Lunch in North Ballroom

1:15 Rivers of Our Vision

- Moderator: Barbara Cosens JD, University of Idaho Law School
- Pauline Terbasket, Executive Director, Okanagon Nation Alliance, A Sacred Responsibility: Toward a Vision of Transboundary River Basin Governance
- Brian Lipscomb, CEO for SX^NQE?ELS L SUWECM / KSUKŁŁMUMAŁ ’A KAŁMUKWA’ITS, Incorporated d/b/a Energy Keepers, Montana Operations
- D.R. Michel, Executive Director, Upper Columbia United Tribes, Restoring Salmon to the Upper Columbia

2:45 Break

3:00 Rivers as our Responsibility

- Moderator: Sarah Bates, National Wildlife Federation
- Tribal Chairman Gary Aitken, Jr., Ethics in Action: Protecting and Restoring Kootenai River Sturgeon and Burbot
- Bishop William Skylstad, Lessons from the Columbia River Pastoral Letter & Laudato Si’
- David James Duncan, Author, Advocacy in a Time of Climate Change

4:30 Synthesis and Future Prospects

- Moderator: David Shively PhD, UM Department of Geography

5:00 Adjourn

5:30 Evening Reception at The Payne Family Native American Center